

LARGEST CIRCULATION.

Leading Local Paper--Semi-Weekly--$1.50 a year.

FREDERICKSBURG STAR,

(THIRTY-TWO COLUMNS.)

RUFUS B. MERCHANT, Owner and Editor.

FREDERICKSBURG, VA., Nov 8 188*8*

*Supt. U. S. Mint,
Phila. Pa.*

Dear Sir: I have a copper cent, worn so smoothly that I cannot discern the date, but around the edge, appears in well-defined letters the following: "One hundred for a dollar." Can you tell me <sup>in</sup> at what date years or years these coins were made? A reply would be appreciated by your obedt servant

Rufus B. Merchant

221 1/2

Fredericksburg, Va.
Nov. 8. 1886.

Rufus B. Merchant

Inquires about a Copper Cent.

"One hundred for a dollar"
is on the edge of one of the four varieties of the Cents
of 1793, and on The Cents of 1794. The only years in which the edges of Cents were inscribed.

Mc.

Nov. 9, 1886.

NARA RG104, Entry 1, Box 142

[Abstract:] Inquires about copper cent.

Largest Circulations.
Leading Local Paper – Semi-Weekly - $1.50 a year.
Fredericksburg Star,
Rufus B. Merchant, Owner and Editor.
Fredericksburg, Va.,
November 8, 1886

Supt. U.S. Mint,
Phila. Pa.

Dear Sir:

I have a copper cent, worn so smoothly that I can not discern the date, but around the edge appears in well-defined letters the following: "one hundred for a dollar". Can you tell me in what year or years these coins were made? A reply would be appreciated by

Your obdt. servant,
Rufus B. Merchant

[Enclosed note:]

"One hundred for a dollar" is on the edge of one of the four varieties of the cents of 1793, and on the cents of 1794. The only years in which the edges of cents were inscribed.

MC.

November 9, 1886